NATIVE AMERICAN SPORTS HEROES

Saturday, September 6, 2014

Time: 1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Native American communities have produced many sports champions. From track and field to ice skating, Native American youth have overcome tremendous challenges and (in the words of Hiram Thorpe) have "shown the world what Indians can do."

Join us in exploring the lives and experiences of Native American sports stars, from the late 19th century up to the present. Learn more about both professional and amateur players, and their triumphs over the odds. Presenters will discuss the important contributions these legendary individuals made in changing sports history and public misconceptions about Native Americans.
