

JOIN US!
ARTIST RECEPTION AND BOOK SIGNING
Saturday, May 14, 2016 1pm - 3 pm

CALIFORNIA INDIAN MUSEUM AND CULTURAL CENTER

5250 Aero Drive, Santa Rosa, CA

707.579.3004

Meet the Artists!

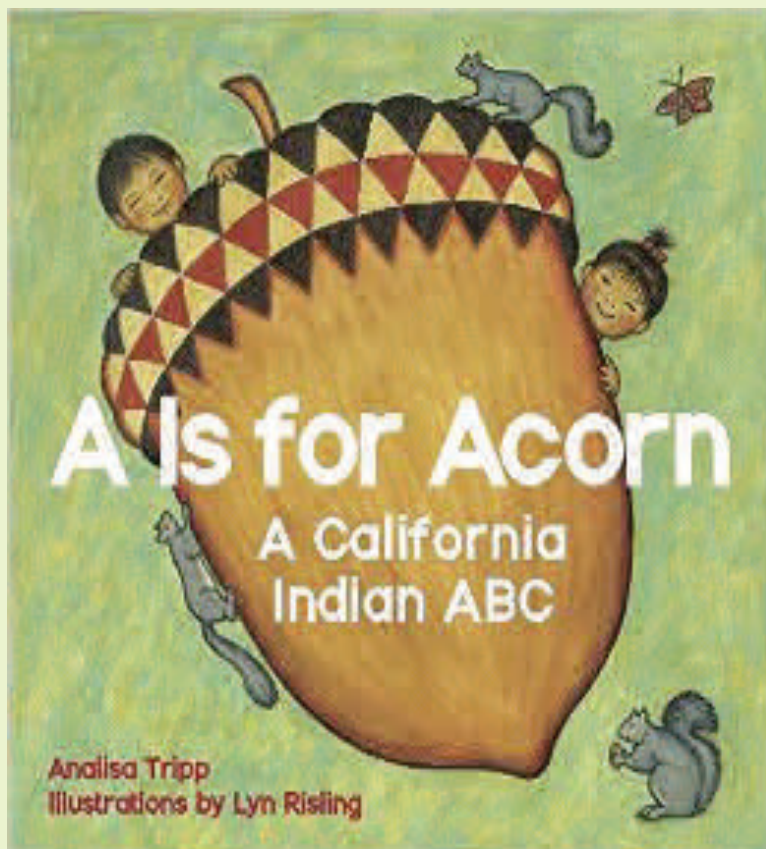

Discover the journey of Analisa Tripp and Lyn Risling as they created the culturally illuminating and environmentally expressive children's book, A is for Acorn.

Books will be on sale at the reception.

♦ Meet

Join us for this family friendly gathering!

♦ Enjoy refreshments, snacks and the company of good people!

 Ms. Risling's illustrations and paintings have represented California Indian country for many years, serving as educational tools for cultural and language programs, health clinics and other special events. Her drawings portray local tribal homelands of the Karuk, Yurok and Hupa of northern California. Ms. Tripp is a writer, an artist, a member of the Karuk tribe and a graduate of U.C. Berkeley's Native Studies Program. She lives in her family's ancestral territory in northwestern California.

For additional information, please contact Catrina Walker at catrina@cimcc.org
Visit our website for upcoming events & presentations: www.cimcc.org